YOGA ASSOCIATION OF ALBERTA

RECERTIFICATION GUIDELINES

Section I – Recertification

Every applicant for certification or recertification with the Yoga Association of Alberta (YAA) must be a member of the YAA in good standing and must submit applicable documentation to the Certification Coordinator by the following application deadlines: March 1st for May certification, July 1st for September certification, and November 1st for January certification. Applications are reviewed and forwarded to the Certification and Executive Committees for approval, and approved certificates mailed by the end of the month in which they are due to expire (May, September, or January).

1. Teacher Recertification

YAA Certified Teachers must maintain up to date YAA membership and apply for recertification every three years to maintain certification status unless they have been approved for Permanent Certification (see Section II.4 below). Approved Senior Teachers please see Senior Teacher Recertification (Section I.2 below). If an applicant does not meet the minimum hourly requirements as outlined, please see Requests for Extension (Section I.3 below). If hours taught or attended are over and above the required hours, the applicant should record those hours as well in the application in order that a complete profile of his / her professional development is in his / her YAA Certification file. See Appendix A for a definition of hatha yoga.

Required Documentation is listed on the Teacher Recertification form. Requirements are as follows:

- A MINIMUM TOTAL OF 240 HOURS of hatha yoga professional development within a three-year period in the following categories:
 - A minimum of 90 HOURS ATTENDING hatha yoga classes and/or workshops (use the Class/Workshop Attendance Hours Worksheet). Classes and workshops should be taught by YAA Intermediate or Senior Teachers (or equivalent). Online classes or webinars are considered acceptable only if there is an interactive component between the teacher and participants, where participants ask questions, receive feedback from the teacher, etc.
 - A minimum of 50 HOURS TEACHING hatha yoga classes and/or workshops (use the Employment Teaching Hours Worksheet).
 - The remaining minimum of 100 HOURS may be EITHER ATTENDING OR TEACHING hatha yoga classes and/or workshops.

2. Senior Teacher Recertification

The YAA recognizes Senior Teachers as dedicated and accomplished teacher-practitioners. As such, learning and study in a formal way is expected to be ongoing within an established practice, although the required hours of class instruction for recertification are reduced. Note that YAA Senior Teacher Status must first be approved. For details please see Section II.3 - Senior Teacher Status. If an applicant does not meet the minimum hourly requirements as outlined below, see Section I.3 – Requests for Extension.

Senior Teachers may apply for recertification with less than the minimum of 90 hours of attendance in hatha yoga classes and/or workshops, provided they report a minimum of 50 hours of attendance and submit a short report detailing their additional hours of self-study practices, related readings, etc. in their area of focus within the field of yoga.

3. Requests for Extension

In extenuating circumstances, a YAA Certified Teacher may be considered for an extension of his / her recertification period. If the extension required is more than one-year, Provisional Certification may be granted for a maximum of two 3-year periods, where certification is maintained with less than required hours. Periods of extension and Provisional Certification are not counted towards Intermediate Teacher or Senior Teacher Status requirements.

Required Documentation is as follows:

- Submit all documentation required for recertification as detailed in the applicable section above, filled in with hours accumulated to date, plus
- A letter or email to the Certification Committee requesting an extension and detailing your circumstances and your plan for obtaining your missing requirements, including the expected time frame.

4. Permanent Certification

YAA Permanent Certification will be awarded in recognition of distinguished individuals for their years of service to the art of yoga, in both practice and teaching, and for their commitment to the YAA role and guiding principles. YAA membership must remain current for Permanent Certification to be valid. Note that levels and status approvals (e.g. 500-Hour, Intermediate and Senior Teacher Status) are not automatic and must be applied for separately.

Required Documentation is listed on the Application for Permanent Certification. Requirements are as follows:

 - A character reference from another YAA Senior Teacher that verifies that the applicant's professional conduct reflects the YAA Code of Ethics and the Guidelines for YAA Certified Teachers based on the Code of Ethics (Appendix B).

5. Lapsed Certification

Previously certified teachers may apply for recertification if their YAA Certification has lapsed. Requirements are as follows:

- Submit all documentation required for recertification as detailed in the applicable section above, filled in with hours accumulated since last submission to the YAA, including:
- A minimum of 10 hours of recent workshops or classes with a YAA Senior Teacher if certification has lapsed for more than one year (one YAA Teaching Skills Workshop or two YAA Core Curriculum Classes recommended - see the Events page of our website or contact the Certification Coordinator at cert@yoga.ca), plus

DEFINITION OF HATHA YOGA

HATHA YOGA, also called hatha-vidya (science of hatha), is a branch of yoga that historically refers to a "vast body of doctrines and practices geared toward Self-realization by means of perfecting the body" (Georg Feuerstein, Encyclopedic Dictionary of Yoga [EDY]). As such, hatha yoga sees the body itself as the primary vehicle for personal transformation. Its central practices include ritual techniques to purify the body and yogic postures (asana) and breath control practices (pranayama) to progressively culture and transform the body.

While all schools practise asana and pranayama while applying the yamas (moral principles) and niyamas (moral restraints), some contemporary schools of hatha yoga still retain a strong emphasis on the practice of purification techniques while others direct their teachings almost exclusively toward asana and pranayama as sufficient tools for mental and physical purification.

The literal meaning of the word "hatha" is "force" or "forceful," which derives from the intended difficulty and austerity of the practices. The word has further significance in that "its two component syllables, "ha" and "tha" are frequently explained as standing for the microcosmic "sun" (surya) and "moon" (chandra) respectively, while yoga is the "union" between these two principles." (EDY)

Hatha yoga is sometimes contrasted with raja yoga and kriya yoga; the former being directly associated with Patanjali's eightfold path (ashtanga yoga) as expounded in his Yoga Sutras. Many schools of hatha yoga adopt the higher stages of ashtanga yoga practice – concentration (dharana), meditation (dhyana) and absorption (samadhi) – and see the emphasis on practising the first five limbs (yama and niyama, asana, pranayama and pratyahara / sense withdrawal) as a stepping stone to raja yoga.

The teacher credited as its inventor is Goraksha (9th century C.E.). The two main texts that describe its principles and characteristics are the Hatha-Yoga-Pradipika (Light on Forceful Yoga) by Svamarama (mid-14th century C.E.) and the Gheranda Samhita (Gheranda's Collection) by the sage Gheranda (late 17th century C.E.).

Among western practitioners hatha yoga is identified primarily with the yoga postures. All initial levels of teaching in hatha yoga concentrate first on asana practice, leading the student gradually toward breathing and meditation techniques.
